

Parenting Class for Divorce

Written by:

Shayna Rayman, JD, LMHC, LCPC, NCC

Online-CEs, LLC © 2020

For use by:

ACEonline, LLC

Table of Contents

I. Introduction	4
A. Type of Parenting Class	4
B. National Statistics	5
C. Purpose of Parenting Classes	6
II. Objectives of Parenting Education Class	8
A. Impact of Divorce on Children	8
B. Can Divorce Be Harmful to Children?	16
C. Recognizing Symptoms of Distress	42
D. Protect Children From Exposure to Harm	46
III. Child Custody - Legal Terminology	69
A. Introduction	69
B. Best Interests Standard	71
C. Parenting Plans	72
D. Child Support	81
IV. Summary	81
V. Tips For Parents: What Parents Can Do To Help Children Cope With Divorce	83
A. Avoid Litigation, If Possible - Use Mediation	83
B. How to Talk to Children About Divorce	84
C. Therapy	91
D. Parenting Time Recommendations	92
VI. Parenting Resources	97

PARENTING EDUCATION

3

General Information 97

Support/Chat Rooms/Forums 97

Co-Parenting Information 98

Kids Books About Divorce 98

References 100

Illinois Parenting Addendum

Written by:

Shayna Rayman, JD, LMHC, LCPC, NCC

Online-CEs, LLC © 2020

For use by:

ACEonline, LLC

Table of Contents

VII. Illinois Parenting Addendum3

 A. Statistics.....3

 B. Purpose of the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution of Marriage Act.....3

 C. Court-Ordered Parenting Education Program - Section 404.1 of the Act.....5

 D. Supreme Court of Illinois Rule 924.....5

 E. Best Interests of the Child Standard.....7

 F. Parenting Plans - Section 602.10 of the Act7

 G. Child Support - Section 505 of the Act.....24